"I have all the places filled with good, strong men," said Coach Hudson, "and they are working desperately and I know they are going to put up the game of their lives. The Dummies are said to have a great team this year and are coming to Bryan over-confident of victory and we figure this point is in our favor."

JOHNSON and ROHDE

Scene From the "Shepherd of the Hills," at the Colonial Friday Night.

AMUSEMENTS. At the Dixie.

The attraction at the Dixie tonight is the sensational five-act Ince-Tri-angle race track drama, "The Thoroughbred," which features the greatest American character actor, Mr. Frank Keenan. The big city critics pronounce this to be one of the finest motion picture offerings ever produced, and although this attraction is being shown all over the country at a 20-cent admission, the Dixie will hold to the usual price of 10 cents.

Ethel Clayton and Carlyle Blackwell will again be seen together in a society drama, this time "A Woman's Way," at the Dixie Theater tomorrow. This photoplay extraordinary is from the stage play of the same name, which was Grace George's most famous of Broadway successes. William A. Brady, director general of World

Film productions, who staged the original play of "A Woman's Way," supervised the photoplay production, thereby guaranteeing the public as good a photoplay as the original play itself, as presented in New York City.

LAWYERS MAY ALSO REJOICE.

The standard of success neatly portrayed in Short Stories will be appreciated by the devotees of church bazaars:

Mable—Was your bazaar a success?
Gladys—Yes. Indeed, the minister will have cause to be grateful.
Mabel—How much were the profits.
Gladys—Nothing. The expenses were more than the receipts, but ten of us got engaged and the minister is in for a good thing in wedding fees.

Some men get rich while others are waiting for bigger opportunities.
